ANDERSON AGREES TO SUPPORT HIS MINOR DAUGHTER

Albrecht Anderson, one of the leading contractors in the state and reputed to be a man of wealth, was hauled into the justice court yesterday for failure to provide for his minor child.

The complaint was sworn to by the girl's step-mother, Mrs. Anna Anderson, the divorced wife of the defendant. Action in the case was suspended, a compromise having been reached whereby Anderson agreed to contribute $20 a month to the support of his daughter until she arrives at her majority on February 12. Should he fail to carry out his agreement the case will be continued. His only statement in court was that the alimony he was compelled to pay his former wife and the amount he devoted to his son's education drained his income severely.

The Andersons came in for not a little notoriety recently when Mrs. Anderson brought suit for a divorce, making sensational charges against her husband. She accused him of sending her to Phoenix to bring her children by a former marriage to this country. During her absence she alleges that he instituted divorce proceedings in final court. When this word reached her across the ocean she immediately borrowed the funds, he refused to send her, and returned. She was here but a short time when she started legal action for separation, naming a woman in the complaint. She secured a decree September 11 and Anderson has since remarried, while the daughter, Miss Sylvia Anderson, the principal in yesterday's action, has continued to make her home with Mrs. Anna Anderson.

Anderson built the Florence High school and the Beale hotel in Kingman and many other buildings of importance in the state.

HERE IS CHANCE FOR ADVERTISERS

Newspaper readers generally have often wondered how it is possible for a newspaper and its advertisers to illustrate advertisements with pictures that showed an unlimited amount of ease and which were the source of real pleasure. The greatest maker of illustrations for newspaper advertisers in the world is the Meyer-Both Service. They were represented in Phoenix yesterday by Fred Hatch, one of the best known men to the newspapers on the Pacific coast. Mr. Hatch handles this service through advertisers and through newspapers in Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona, California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Nevada, Utah and Wyoming.

He has an intimate knowledge of the advertising game, and has proven of great value in his assistance to advertising departments of newspapers in this field. The Arizona Republican handles extensively in Phoenix the output of the Meyer-Both Service. This company employs 100 of the best artists to be had. Their payroll is nearly a quarter million dollars a year, doing work for the big manufacturers, including those of "nothing women's wear, etc."

So complete is their scope that individual attention is given the request for any particular character of illustrations to any newspaper on their list. Any of the Republican advertisers who wish an interview with Mr. Hatch will be favored if a telephone call is sent to the advertising department of The Arizona Republican this morning.

PHELPS IS SENTENCED—J. O. Phelps pleaded guilty to a forgery charge in the superior court yesterday. He was given a year's suspended sentence by Judge Stanford.

KNIGHT TIRE MAN—E. G. Knight, special representative of the Knight Tire and Rubber company of Canton, Ohio, is in Phoenix for a few days looking over conditions here. The Knight product is handled locally by the Mesner Auto Supply company, of North Central avenue.

LIGHTS TURNED ON—The new street lights, two to a block, which have recently been installed on West Washington street, up to and through the capital grounds, were turned on last night for the first time. The street was brilliantly illuminated, as far as the eye could see, the lights making an unbroken line from the capital east on Washington street.

WEDDING AT SCOTSDALE—Mrs. Hattie Poemcke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Weyerer, and Thomas H. Caldwell were married in Scottdale last evening. Rev. S. G. Bridges of the Baptist church, read the service in the presence of a few relatives and friends of the couple, who will make their home in this valley.

WYCOFF RETURNS—H. C. Wycoff, who has been working in the office of the Miami Consolidated Mining company, has returned to Phoenix from Miami, to remain until after election. Wycoff is enthusiastic over conditions in Miami, and states that when the Miami Consolidated stock goes on the curb, there will be a still bigger boom there.

SALE OF JERSEY COWS—Herd of A-1 Jerseys, big milkers, some fresh and others fresh in 20 days, will be sold at auction Friday at 1:30 p. m. on the Hawkins Ranch 3 1/2 miles N. of McDowell on Asylum road. M. R. Maury is leaving the ranch and turned all stock over to H. W. Getzinger. Auctioneers to be sold. Every one wanting good family cows invited to this sale. (Adv.)
